

Víctor Florido

Born 1976, Buenos Aires, Argentina
Lives and works in Buenos Aires, Argentina

Víctor Florido is an Argentine artist with a strong career background whose work resides at the intersection of figurative and non-narrative painting. His signature style is characterised by straight lines and a restrained palette of greys, browns, deep blues, and occasional hints of pink. With a refined technique and a touch of classicism, Florido creates enigmatic interiors—rooms, halls, libraries, and walls adorned with layered paintings.
